2013 Activity

Top Campaigns:

1. December 2013: Bringing Gary Yourofsky back to Israel for a second publicized speaking tour. This time Yourofsky, among others, will join one of Israel’s most renowned lecturers, Dr. Yuval Noah Harari, for two joint meetings, a fact that already brought one of Israel’s most prestigious newspaper magazines (Haaretz Magazine) to publish in October an article, featuring a discussion between the two.

2. Filming “Life according to Ohad” - a 60 minutes documentary which follows the life and struggle of Ohad Cohen, a charismatic animal rights activist in Israel. The film will be aired on Israel leading Satellite TV network in 2014, and will be filmed in international film festivals around the globe.

- “Creating” and promoting media stories:
Many articles related to the Yourofsky’s speech but also:
  ● Researching and collecting information on vegans, who in the past worked in the animal industries (this already led to one newspaper article but the more “extreme” material will go to a future television story).
  ● Gathering information on a 99 years old Holocaust survivor, who became vegan more than 50 years ago. Right now we are in negotiation with her daughter, regarding the photographs.

- Delivering free of charge printing material - business cards, stickers.

- Preserving archive video materials and making it accessible to the public.
